

NAVIGATING THE N BETWEEN

Caught in a Cul-de-Sac

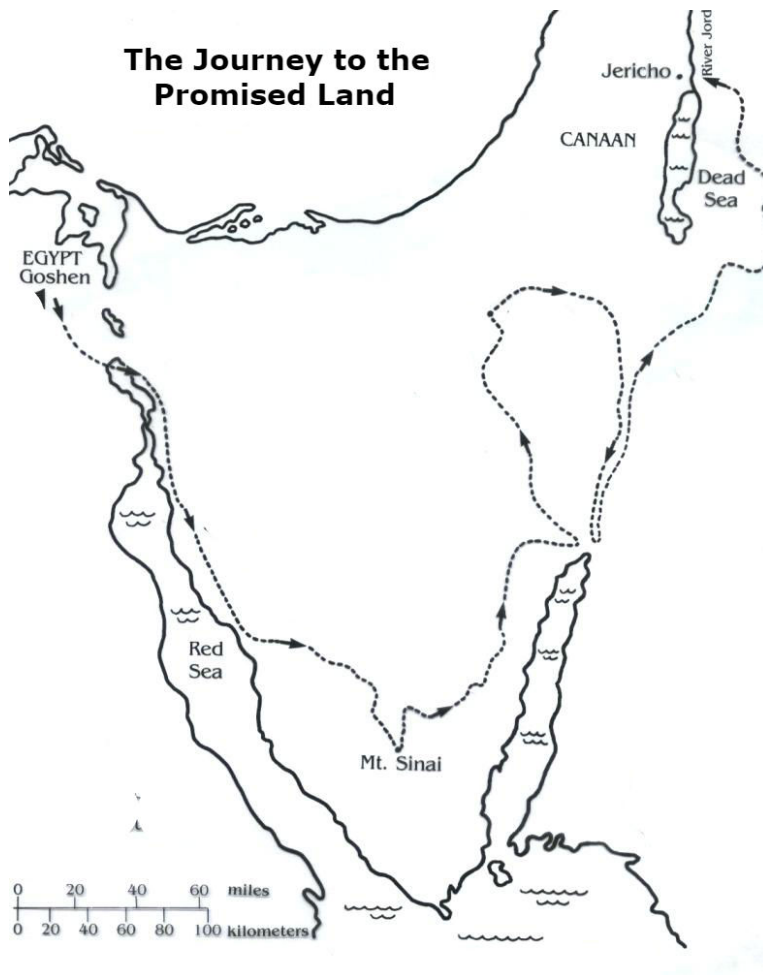

Pastor Joel DeSelm

1. As we navigate the in-between, God's plans are not always _____.

Exodus 14:1, 2

Then the LORD said to Moses, "Tell the Israelites to turn back and encamp near Pi Hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea.

They are to encamp by the sea, directly opposite Baal Zephon.

2. Though we can't see it at the time, God's plans for us are for our ultimate _____ and personal _____.

Exodus 13:17

When Pharaoh let the people go, God did not lead them on the road through the Philistine country, though that was shorter. For God said, "If they face war, they might change their minds and return to Egypt."

3. As we navigate the in-between, the _____ will relentlessly _____ us.

Exodus 14:5-9

When the king of Egypt was told that the people had fled, Pharaoh and his officials changed their minds about them and said, "What have we done? We have let the Israelites go and have lost their services!" So he had his chariot made ready and took his army with him. He took six hundred of the best chariots, along with all the other chariots of Egypt, with officers over all of them. The Egyptians— all Pharaoh's horses and chariots, horsemen and troops— pursued the Israelites and overtook them as they camped by the sea near Pi Hahiroth, opposite Baal Zephon.
